SOUND ENGINEER - RAFFAELE D'ANELLO

Raffaele "Neda" D'Anello (1984) is a sound engineer, sound designer, and skilled mix engineer with a fervent dedication to the art of sound. At the very center of Valle d'Aosta he founded MeatBeat, a leading recording studio in the region. His expertise extends from creating commercials and short films for renowned international clients such as Technogym, Sky Italia, Kia, Audi, and others to composing soundtracks that capture the essence of audiovisual art with precision and depth. In addition, Raffaele excels as a mix engineer, shaping each track in order to deliver the best sound to his clients. As music producer he collaborates with various bands in Italy and Europe creating distinctive and unforgettable sounds.
